This is to introduce the LaTeX technical typesetting program. It is most useful in mathematics and related fields, because it includes lots of symbols, but it is also useful in foreign languages, because it is easy to add accent marks of many kinds, like the umlaut (ë), the tilde (ñ), and the French accents whose names I can never remember (é and è).