

SPECIAL VOLUME of INTEGERS

The Ron Graham Memorial Volume

We are pleased to invite papers for a special volume of Integers commemorating the late Ronald L. Graham, who passed away on July 6, 2020.

This special volume will consist of original research articles in the areas of number theory and combinatorics that are related to the contributions made by Ron Graham in these areas.

The deadline for submission of articles is January 15, 2021.

All submissions should be sent as .pdf files via email to integersjournal@gmail.com.

For instructions on formatting and how to submit, please follow the Integers journal instructions to authors on the website: www.integers-ejcnt.org.

All submissions will be handled according to Integers' usual refereeing process.
